Description of Practice

Mr. Faller's practice consists of business bankruptcy reorganizations and litigation, business transactions and litigation and real estate transactions and litigation. He is the Chair of Shulman Rogers' Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Group. He has extensive experience before the Bankruptcy Courts for the District of Maryland and the District of Columbia, as well as Bankruptcy Courts in other jurisdictions. He was a founding director of the Bankruptcy Bar Association of the District of Maryland and is a past President of that Association. He has represented Debtors in numerous successful reorganizations, including real estate developers and entities, multi-store retailers, restaurants and individuals. He has also represented lenders, landlords and committees in complex reorganization cases. He is a frequent lecturer to attorneys in continuing legal education courses in the areas of bankruptcy, commercial litigation and business transactions.

ADR Experience

For the past eleven (11) years, Mr. Faller has served as a member of the panel of mediators for civil proceedings in the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, Maryland, under the Court's mandatory Alternative Dispute Resolution program. He is a member of the Panel of Resolution Advocates for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Maryland and a member of the Mediation Panel for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, appointed to mediate adversary proceedings and contested matters. His success rate in assisting litigants in resolving their disputes has been consistently above 90%. Fees for mediation services are flexible and depend upon the rules of the applicable court, the number of cases to be mediated, the anticipated pre-mediation conference services and the anticipated length of mediation conferences. Hourly charges are $350, but a fixed fee per case or a per diem rate is also available for discussion and agreement.
